

SILVER STRINGS Technique Book

You will need to get your OWN PERSONAL COPY of the technique book we will use for individual technique development. This new book is a tremendous resource that has a great deal of useful information all in one place; since it will be yours, you will be able to make notes and mark it up however will help you the most.

You may get the book on your own, but you will probably need to get it online if so. There are links from the publisher's website (www.alfred.com) to a variety of online music dealers, or you can go directly to a site like www.jwpepper.com, www.stantons.com, www.sheetmusicplus.com, or any other major music retailer. You may also find it on Amazon. Be sure to get the book for YOUR instrument (Violin, Viola, Cello, String Bass) and be sure to get the INTERMEDIATE book (we use the Advanced book in Golden Strings).

As a convenience only, if you would like us to order you a copy, we will – if so, please bring $10 in to Mr. Benoit no later than Friday, August 20 and he will have the boosters do a group order. Cash or checks payable to Largo Band of Gold.

The book is:

Sound Innovations Sound Development for Intermediate String Orchestra
By Bob Phillips and Kirk Moss
